

Question 6) How can you approach a Catholic who is initially unwilling to study because he says, “I have always been a Catholic”?

Question 7) What is a good place to start when studying with a Catholic?

Question 8) How could a Catholic be approached regarding the topic of baptism?

ONLY HOPE PUBLICATIONS

Overseen by the Durham church of Christ

www.onlyhopepublications.com

Like Our Facebook Page

Follow Us On Twitter

---

WHAT IS CATHOLICISM?

---

HOPE
ONLY
PUBLICATIONS

Lesson 13 of 13: How to Study with a Catholic

---

HOW TO STUDY WITH A CATHOLIC

Question 1) How do Catholics view the Bible and why?

Question 2) Why would a Catholic who is willing to study the Bible for the first time, probably be “good soil”?

Question 3) What areas of Catholicism could yield to a “smooth” transition to truth?

Question 4) In what three classes do those who are unwilling to study fall?

Question 5) What are some ways to approach a Catholic who is initially unwilling to study and has a deeply rooted traditional family bond?

